

National Critical Infrastructure Security Month Schedule

Week	Event/Activity
Week 1 (Nov. 1- Nov. 7)
Nov. 2	Kick-off blog: Background on month and intro to Critical Infrastructure
Nov. 3	Blog: Cybersecurity Issues: Zoom hacking of universities and schools
Nov. 4	Blog: How Waste Water Treatment Plants Work
Nov. 5	Blog: CISA Offers New Resources on National Critical Functions
Week 2 (Nov. 8-Nov. 14)
Nov. 8	Virtual Open Houses: Master's Open House & Doctoral Open House
Nov. 10	Dr. Ron Martin Hosts a Webinar: Stop Issuing Secure Credentials to Impostors: A case for the Identity, Credential, and Access Management Construct
Nov. 13	Dr. Ian McAndrew gives a presentation titled The Implications of Critical Infrastructures in Smart Cities at the 2020 Maryland Society of Professional Engineers Annual Conference
Week 3 (Nov. 15-Nov. 21)

Nov. 16-19	HACK THE BUILDING "A U.S. Cyber Command Inspired Event" Sponsored by Capitol Tech and Capitol Tech's WiCyS CIC group.
Nov. 17	Dr. Ron Martin presents during the Control Systems Cybersecurity Virtual Conference and the WiCyS CIC group sponsored by Capitol Tech gives a presentation on Critical Infrastructure .
Nov. 18	Blog: Q&A with Dr. Ron Martin
Nov. 20	Intro article on the Flowers School project led by Capitol Technology University
Nov. 21	Undergraduate Virtual Open House
Week 4 (Nov. 22- Nov. 28)
Nov. 23	Blog: Dr. Sinai writes about the intersection of counterterrorism and critical infrastructure
Nov. 24	Flowers School students share their projects throughout the week via video
Nov. 26-27	THANKSGIVING (Closed)
Week 5 (Nov. 29-Nov. 30)
Nov. 30	Wrap-up on National Critical Infrastructure Security Month from Dr. Ron Martin