

Leave a Legacy

Capitol Tech made a difference in your life.
Now it's your chance to make a difference for the next generation.

By naming Capitol Technology University (Capitol Tech) as a beneficiary of your estate, you are making an important statement about the quality of life you want for yourself — and for future generations.

Several options exist to make Capitol Tech part of your legacy. It can be done through your Will or Revocable Trust; your life insurance; or retirement accounts.

By naming Capitol Technology University as a beneficiary of your estate you will be joining a distinguished list of Capitol Tech supporters that are now members of the Capitol Tech Legacy Society. We look forward to welcoming you to this exceptional group.

To discuss your estate plan, please contact Capitol Tech's Asst. VP of Development and Donor Relations Jacky Wershba at jwershbale@captechu.edu or call Jacky at 240.965.2461.

Bequests Through Your Will or Revocable Trust

Naming Capitol Technology University in your will is an easy way to invest in the future. The following is some sample language you can use:

I give to Capitol Technology University, a 501 (c) (3) non-profit university incorporated in Washington, DC and whose campus is now located in Laurel, Maryland, the sum of $ _____(or _____% of my residuary estate) for general operating purposes (or a specific department or program in keeping with the university's mission).

Our tax identification 501c3 number is: 52-0805606.

Please email Jacky Wershba at jwershbale@captechu.edu or 240.965.2461, if you have questions, or need additional information about including Capitol Technology University in your Will or Trust.

Gifts of Life Insurance

Life insurance policies provide for the payment of their face amount on the death of the insured to a named beneficiary. The beneficiary may be an individual, the insured's estate, a trustee under a will or trust agreement, or a charitable organization.

Name Capitol Technology University as a beneficiary of a policy insuring your life or transfer ownership of a paid-up life insurance policy to Capitol Technology University. The university may elect to cash in the policy or receive the death benefits later.

You may also name Capitol Technology University as the beneficiary of your IRA, 401 (k), or other qualified plan.
